From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Church Family,

This past Sunday, September 4, 2011, I spoke about how the message of Jesus overcomes evil with good. I believe as a nation we need to be reminded that Jesus' life, death and resurrection were for the purpose of overcoming evil with the power of God. The way He lived and related to people always showed a clear and present reality of how God wasn't going to allow evil to triumph in human history. As Christians we have hope that God is with us and will see us through any adversity because God wants the best for all God's children.

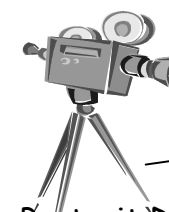

Sunday, September 11, 2011, we will remember and honor the tenth anniversary of a terrorist attack upon our nation. Just by saying "911" brings back memories that are painful and cause most to be filled with hatred and despair. Most will be able to recall where they were when "911" occurred when we saw the worst and best in humanity. We saw evil manifested at great levels and we saw heroism of people determined to save lives. Our nation was shaken but somehow God has helped us to move forward. The cries of "United We Stand" still echo in the air as evil tried to overcome us, yet through God's help we remain intact as a nation. We must always remember the families who have lost loved ones and the people who were late to work and missed it or absent on the day of the attack. All of these individuals are hurting and many carry the guilt of why they didn't perish and their co-workers are gone.

It is in times like these that I remember we live in a fallen world, filled with sin and tragedy will occur. But Jesus said that we would have trouble in this life and He had overcome the trouble and the world. There is a great deal that I don't understand. I don't understand why people have to suffer and die senselessly. One thing I do know is that God can take any situation and cause God's people to turn to God for help. I am reminded of the song "His Eye Is On the Sparrow" which says, "I sing because I'm happy. I sing because I'm free, for His eye is in the sparrow and I know He watches me."

So we will pause and thank God for God's care in our midst. We can celebrate that God is overcoming evil with good. We can have hope which doesn't disappoint us and helps us love each other as God intended. God is good to us and blesses us beyond anything we deserve. We should return our gifts to Him and love each other instead of wasting time on hate. Think About It!

Hello church family!

We are still getting ready to begin our new Rotation Station on Sunday mornings at 10:00. The schedule is posted downstairs by the door that goes to the elevator. You can see where the different age groups will be each week there. We look forward to finishing our renovations and starting this on September 11th. Please be on the look out for our first newsletter. Copies will be available on our Children's Info board outside the sanctuary near the nursery.

Please subscribe to my new blog. Go to: www.hollyroeonthego.blogspot.com to keep up with the latest things going on in my life and in the life of our Children's Ministry. Also check out our new updated page on the church website. Go to www.fumcgallatin.org and click on Children for information on all the ministry we are doing and plan to do. Thank you for serving Christ through Children's Ministry, Holly

The Beauty of Youth Ministry is in the Details There is so much more, behind the scenes, of what we do that are, essentially, the most beautiful structural aspects of the ministry. The programs (Sunday Night FUSE, Sunday Morning's, Wednesday Night EDGE and Deeper Walk) that are seen on a weekly basis are just the skin surface of a deeper work that God is doing.

Here are just a few:

TWR's (Time With Rachel...and sometimes Steve)

- Prayer Concerns & Praises
- Mentoring Ministry
- Hang Time
- Text Blasts
- Text Ministry
- Praise & Worship
- Small Groups
- AV Ministry
- Adult & Young Adult Leadership Teams
- Internship & much more!

It's exciting what is going on and Rachel and the Servant Leaders are hard at work, faithful to the vision God has for our teenagers. Will you come be part of the action? We would LOVE to have you love on our teenagers. If you are interested, see Rachel!

--4th Sunday Offering for the Month of August benefitted TN Conference Prison Ministries - Our Prison Ministry outreach is vital to mending broken relationships between prisoners and the outside community. Once we put a face on a prisoner, our perceptions become more of a relationship than a problem. Based on Jesus' words in Matthew 25:36, '...I was in prison and you came to visit me...'. Such a ministry can very well mean the difference between a freed prisoner returning to prison...or moving forward to become a positive part of our community.
