October 20, 2011

From Pastor Jerry's Desk

Dear Church Family,

We are entering an exciting time of the year when we focus on Stewardship. Stewardship is a word and concept that causes people to focus solely on the issue of money. Stewardship is more than money or financial campaigns or budget requests. Stewardship is a gift from the Lord God Almighty to remind us that we are just Stewards of everything we have. God has given us so much in a thousand different ways and calls on us to oversee the blessings. As Stewards we are given the gifts of time, talent and resources to honor and glorify God and be agents of God's Kingdom work. Even though we choose to focus on Stewardship in the fall, we should realize it is an ongoing daily event in our Christian faith experience. It is a true blessing to be a part of God's ministry as individuals and as a congregation. Stewardship is our gift we offer God as an expression of gratitude for God's place in our lives.

Beginning this Sunday, October 23, 2011, we will be focusing on a sermon series entitled, "Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity". This series is based on a program designed and developed by Rev. Adam Hamilton and The Church of the Resurrection, a United Methodist congregation. We will spend four weeks focusing on how we can discover and be blessed in our giving. On Sunday, November 13, 2011, we will celebrate and be given an opportunity to commit our lives to God for the ministry He will do in and through us at Gallatin 1st UMC. I want to strongly encourage you to attend the services and collectively listen and prepare for how God is going to speak to our hearts. We have an exciting future ahead and God will be with us. See you Sunday, at the Place of Grace!

Blessings, Pastor Jerry
